We are all different ,but the same

A PowerPoint just to let you know it’s OK to be different !

Difference

Difference is a talent ,

Difference is a quality ,

Even if you an a identical twin there will be at least one thing different about you that makes you amazing and stick out from everyone else !

Look at these people they are all different , but the same !

Everyone is different and that's ok !

Prayer for my friends :

Dear Father ,

Bless all my friends with happiness and laughter ,

Help them to always love each other and help everyone they see struggling . Make sure they know you’re always with them ,

Amen .
