Maths:

For this week's mathematics there are no teaching videos. There are 4 lessons of activities saved to seesaw and school website as usual. This week's topic is 2D and 3D shape.

RE:

Watch the video of 'I'm sorry' being read aloud. Talk about sometimes we make good choices and bad choices and how that makes us and others feel.

Write some sentences of times when you were happy with your friends and sad about something that happened. How did you or your friends sort the problem out?

I was happy when...

I was sad when...

Context:

This half term all year groups will not be having project grids, but instead will be taking part in a whole school science enquiry project! More information regarding this will be going out in next Monday's learning log. Exciting stuff!!

For this week Cardiff Council have asked schools to get involved with pupils mapping their routes to school.

Look at the PDF called 'family mapping' (saved to seesaw and school website) and use the pages to help you create your own map of your route to school.
