Easter Sunday: New Life.

Good Friday was not the end. After Jesus had died on the Cross his friends came and took his body and buried it in a stone tomb and rolled a big stone in front of the opening. They had not got time to prepare Jesus' body as it was the Sabbath. The Sabbath is a Jewish holy day. The Sabbath begins at nightfall on Friday and lasts until nightfall on Saturday.

Ask someone to read this Gospel with you.

Matthew's Gospel tells us what happened next:

After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples: He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.

Now I have told you."

So, the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell the others to go to Galilee; there they will see me."
