New Life (based on Acts 2:22-24,32)

Good Friday was not the end of the story.
On Easter Sunday people celebrate the new life that God gave to Jesus.
Listen to how Peter told the people about it.
The story comes from the book of the Bible called The Acts of the Apostles.
The Book of Acts tells what happened to Jesus' followers after Jesus had gone back to heaven.

Peter spoke in a loud voice to the huge crowd who had gathered.
"Listen everyone to what I am going to say.
Jesus of Nazareth was sent to you by God.
He lived among you
and did many good and wonderful works
for you, as you know.
You took him and had him crucified.
You killed him but God the Father raised him to new life.
We know he is alive for we have seen him.

New Life

