

The Curriculum for Wales

Our school curriculum is the foundation of everything our pupils will learn at Christ the King.

It says:

- What they should learn
- How they should learn
- The reasons why they should learn

The 12 pedagogical principles

Cross curricular
As well as the AOLES, there are three cross curricular responsibilities – Literacy, Numeracy and Digital Competence.

Support social and emotional development and positive relationships

Encourage learners to take responsibility for their own learning

Focus on the four purposes

Encourage collaboration

Create authentic contexts for learning

Employing a broad repertoire of teaching approaches

Promote problem solving, creative and critical thinking

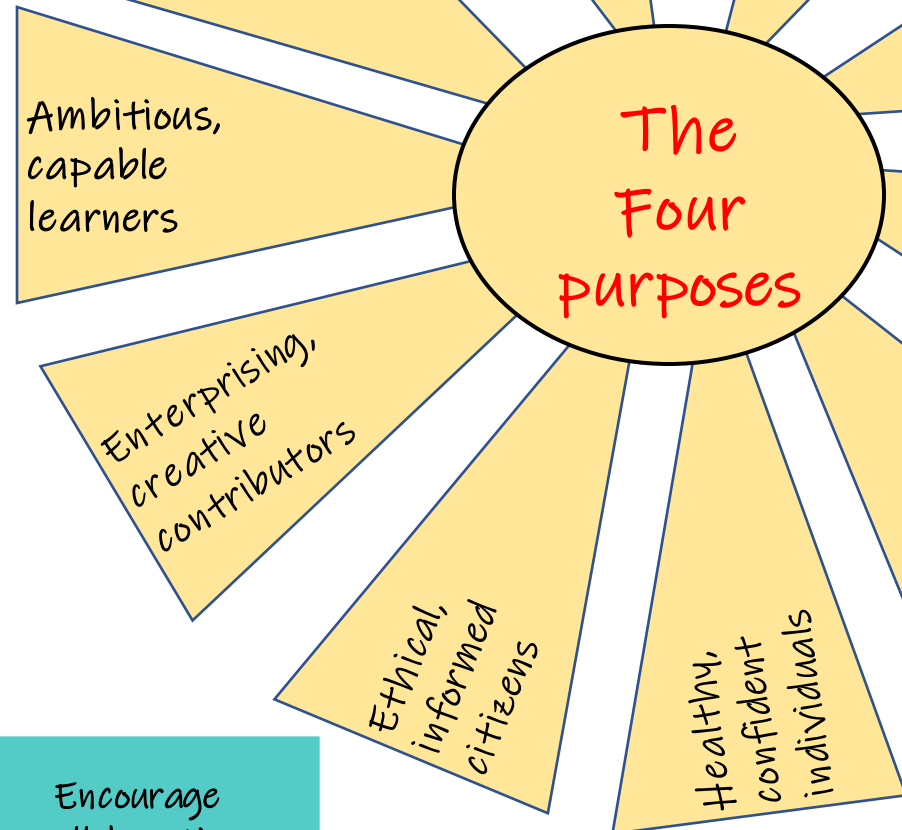

Build on previous knowledge and experience to engage interest

Sustained pupil effort to reach high but achievable targets

Use assessment for learning to accelerate progress

Make connections with and across AOLES

Reinforce cross curricular responsibilities

The four purposes

The starting point and aspiration for every child and young person in Wales.

The 12 principles

These are intended to underpin the curriculum, ensuring it is fit for all pupils.
